

LEE TUBMAN

Lee Tubman, originally from Eston, SK, is an FEI 4* Dressage Judge, Equestrian Canada (EC) certified Level 3 Dressage Coach and high performance dressage athlete. With more than 35 years of experience competing, judging and coaching dressage, he is a well-respected staple in the Canadian dressage community.

Lee has been connected to EC since 1978, being named to the Canadian Equestrian Team long list many times, and also participating in CET training camps and attending coaching and judging symposiums, courses, and exams. He has also been a longstanding volunteer with EC as a member of Competitions and Officials committees, and is currently a member of the EC Dressage Committee, where he is dedicated to helping to further build the sport of dressage in Canada at all levels.
